

GRANT LOUIS OLIVEIRA

3176 Monroe Avenue, San Diego 92116 (559) 362-7225 grant@oliveiradata.com linkedin.com/in/grantoliveira oliveiradata.com

Education

Johns Hopkins University

2015

- Data Science Certification with a focus on R, data visualization and statistical inference

Average Grade: 89.7%

University of California, San Diego

2010 – 2014

- B.A. Political Science with an emphasis in International Relations
- Honors Thesis available on LinkedIn or by request

with Honors

Skills and Interests

- Expertise in R programming (Core competencies include: data wrangling and cleaning from diverse data sources including STATA and SPSS native data files, machine learning, ggplot2 data visualization, and Shiny app creation), SQL, STATA 12, Tableau, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Office, Adobe Creative Suite. Passing familiarity with Python.
- Strong familiarity with core principles of economics and econometrics.
- Other interests include: Playing guitar, Photography, Travel, Film Production (Assistant Director credits on three independent short films). Co-Host of a YouTube-based travel series called “The Celebration” – <http://www.oliveirabros.com>

Professional Experience

Oliveira | Moore Consulting

July 2016 – Present

Principal

San Diego, CA

- Perform economic, public policy and business intelligence related data analysis for clients on a consultant basis (Clients include: The Laura and John Arnold Foundation, SD Regional Chamber of Commerce Foundation, Competitive Edge Research and Communication, Citizen SuperPAC, Direct Dermatology)
- Research featured in the Voice of San Diego (article: “What We Know About Who is Donating in the D9 City Council Race” 8/16/16, “Maienschein’s Mammoth Campaign Cash Haul” 10/14/16)

San Diego County Taxpayers Association

Apr 2015 – Jun 2016

Director of Policy

San Diego, CA

- Promoted from Policy Analyst position January 2016
- Planned and executed the Association’s policy agenda, deciding which issues are most relevant and how the Association can be most impactful in influencing them
- Led a team of graduate student interns and policy analysts in designing, executing, and publishing position papers
- Developed staff position on wide ranging issues such as short term vacation rentals, publicly financed sports stadiums, and regional infrastructure financing.
- Advocated for Association positions, testifying in front of City Council, speaking to the press, and meeting with elected officials directly.

California Republican Party

May 2014 – Mar 2015

Field Director CA-52

San Diego, CA

- Recruited over 200 volunteers and hired over 60 interns and paid staff.
- Coordinated voter outreach strategy using a rich, microtargetted database utilizing consumer data, survey information, age and propensity to vote to develop models to campaign more efficiently.
- Networked with donors, plan events, and solicit donations.
- Served as a member of Senator Bill Cassidy’s field team in New Orleans, Louisiana from November to December 2014.

Trans-Border Institute, University of San Diego

Aug 2012 – Dec 2012

Research Assistant

San Diego, CA

- Contributed to the Justice in Mexico Project, a human rights campaign tracking data on the individual victims of the Mexican Drug War that has been featured in The Economist (Waves Of Violence | Graphic Detail 11/22/12)
- Delivered presentations to high school and college students on both sides of the border about the Institute’s programming.
- Wrote and delivered the presentation "Tijuana: Then and Now", an overview of the viability and prominence of all major drug trafficking organizations then operating in northern Baja California, to the Institute's executive board.

Extracurricular Leadership

Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity

Oct 2013 – June 2014

President

La Jolla, CA

- Served as the chief executive officer of a fraternity of nearly 100 men.
- Supervised the management of an over $100k yearly operating budget.
- Raised more money for philanthropic causes in my first quarter as President than the chapter had risen in the past 4 years